Demonstrating respect for self and others and our learning environment
Letting adults know of incidents of harassment or intimidation
Being open to change

Unacceptable Conduct

Behaviour or communication that discriminates based on race, colour, ancestry, place of origin, religion, marital status, family status, age, physical or mental disability, sex, sexual orientation or gender identity and expression (from the BC Human Rights Code)

Unacceptable behaviour will be managed with a restorative, rather than punitive manner and will take into account a student's age, maturity, and special needs, if any.

Island Discovery's code of conduct promotes the values expressed in the BC Human Rights Code respecting the rights of all individuals in accordance with the law - prohibiting discrimination based on race, colour, ancestry, place of origin, religion, marital status, family status, age, physical or mental disability, sex, sexual orientation, or gender identity and expression - in respect of discriminatory publication and discrimination in accommodation, service, and facility in the school environment.
